Consulate General of Israel in Hong Kong and Macau

September 2015

Dear friends,

It has been a rather good year for us here in the Consulate: a year in which we have witnessed a nice increase in business and traffic between Israel and Hong Kong.

Please feel free to share with us your Israeli experience and your recommendations to strengthen the bilateral relations between Israel and Hong Kong.

As we are going to celebrate Jewish New Year this coming Sunday I want to wish you all a successful year ahead and good health to you and your families.
